

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Abbreviations	xix

Chapter 1

Theological Method as Disciplined Response to Divine Revelation 1

The Theological Method of the Believers' Churches	5
Competing Historiographies
The Fundamental Contribution of the Believers' Churches
The English Baptist Commitment to Yield to Christ Alone
The Historiographical Comprehensiveness of Discipleship
The Southern Baptist Witness to the Word of God	24
The Sufficiency of Scripture
Theological Authority
God's Call and the Author's Response	30

Chapter 2

The Foundation of Doctrine: Three Christian Alternatives 33

Joseph Ratzinger, Conservative Roman Churchman	34
Logos and Logic
Faith in Christ
Architectonic Ecclesiology
Maurice Wiles, Hospitable Liberal	42
Oxonian Hospitableness
Modern Reasonableness
Historical Criticism, Then Doctrinal Criticism
Remaking the Christian Faith
Herman Bavinck, Reasonably Reformed	49
Philosophy of Revelation
The Invisible Catholic Church
The Demotion of Faith
Locating the Free-Church Theological Foundation	60
The Unrivalled Supremacy of Scripture
Liberation from the Captivity of Philosophy
A Living Faith in Jesus Christ
The Biblical Church

Chapter 3
The Foundation of Doctrine: A Believers' Church Proposal 73

- Pilgram Marpeck, Disciple of Jesus Christ 73
- A Holistic Theological Foundation for the Church 76
- The Ground Principles of a Believers' Church Theology 78
1. Jesus Christ
 - Person
 - Work
 2. Word and Spirit
 - Coinherence
 - Verbum Dei*
 - Verbum cum Spiritu*
 - Spiritus cum Verbo*
 3. Biblical Order Versus Human Invention
 - Judgment and Decision*
 - Martin Bucer
 - Bucer's Confusion of the Covenants
 - Bucer's "Outrage to the Holy Spirit"
 - Marpeck's Biblical Order
 4. The Believers' Church
 - The Biblical Order Concretized
 - Personal Salvation
 - Baptism
 - The Commemoration
 - Church Discipline
 - Gemeintheologie*
 - The Beautiful Church
 - The Humble Church
- Conclusion 104
- Marpeck's Holistic Theology in Action
 - The Contribution of the Free Churches to Modernity
 - Marpeck's Contributions to the Current Crisis in Theological Method

Chapter 4
The Development of Doctrine: Biblical and Historical Considerations 107

- The Development of Doctrine as a Historical Doctrine 107
- The Classical Thesis Defined
 - The Classical Thesis Concretized
 - The Classical Thesis Cracked
 - A New Thesis Proposed
 - Evangelical Responses
- The Development of Doctrine as a Scriptural Doctrine 127
- Fixed and Developing
 - Fixing the Tradition
 - Developing the Tradition

From Apostolic Pattern to Church Dogma	138
A Perilous Necessity
Christocentric Kerygma
Trinitarian Identification
Healthy Church Dogma and Postbiblical Claims

Chapter 5

The Development of Doctrine: A Believers' Church Proposal 150

The Early Free-Church Doctrine of Development	151
The English Separatist Doctrine of "Further Light"
The Cross-Centered Prolegomena of Andrew Fuller
Free-Church Historiography	157
The Herbert Butterfield Problem
Free-Church Values in Butterfield's Philosophy of History
A Free-Church Theology of History	165
The Lord of Eternity Is the Lord of History
The Lord of All Human Beings Equally
Divine Providence
The Lord of the Fallible
The Lord of Both Covenants
The Lord of All the Churches
From a Theology of History to a History of Theology	180

Chapter 6

The Pattern of the Cross as Commission: Toward a Free-Church History of Theology 181

The New Testament Pattern of History	182
The New Testament Pattern
The Pattern of the Cross
Suggested Themes for a Free-Church History of Theology	186
Trinitarian Revelation
Personal Salvation
Covenantal Freedom
A Concluding Exhortation	203

Name Index	205
Subject Index	211
Scripture Index	215